For Immediate Release

proudly presents the renown
AVIATION ARCHAEOLOGIST
PAT MACHA and his
Search for WASP Gertrude Tompkins Silver

when we fly our P-51 MUSTANG!

WHO: Pat Macha – Expert wreck finder and author of the book Aircraft Wrecks in the Mountains and Deserts of California now in its third edition.

WHAT: Pat will brief the public and present slides regarding the most up-to-date information on his ongoing search for the Woman Airforce Service Pilot, Gertrude Tompkins Silver, who disappeared in 1944 in a North American P-51 Mustang en route from LA to New Jersey.

WHEN: Saturday, February 6, 2010; 10:00 am – 12:00 pm. The presentation and slideshow will be followed by a question and answer period, book signing, and flight demo of our P-51!

WHERE: Planes of Fame Air Museum
7000 Merrill Avenue
Chino, CA 91710

WHY: Mysteries of aviation archaeology remain unresolved to this day. Most often, after accident investigation concludes, these locations remain undisturbed for decades. Until Pat Macha documents them....

On the first Saturday of every month Planes of Fame Air Museum, a 501.c.3, hosts a Living History Flying Day on WWII aviation history in an ongoing effort to educate and inspire current and future generations. Members are admitted free. View our website at www.planesoffame.org for more info and become a Facebook fan today!
