

Historic Aircraft Wrecks of Los Angeles County

In the century that aircraft have flown over Los Angeles an astounding number have crashed, many in remote areas of the mountains or ocean, some still undiscovered. Aircraft archeologist G. Pat Macha has spent a lifetime discovering lost wrecks, in some cases giving closure to grieving families left behind. Macha is an outstanding story teller, and has an amazing collection of personal photos of long-lost wreck sites in Los Angeles County.

Monday April 20th 7pm
La Crescenta Center For Spiritual Living
At the intersection of Dunsmore and Santa Carlotta